Celebrating Our Veterans

Troy Hyder enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corps in 1972 from his hometown of Griffin, Georgia, and headed to boot camp in Paris Island, South Carolina. He was selected for air traffic control training. Troy awaited school in Millington, Tennessee, then to Glynco, Georgia for extensive schooling. He received orders to Santa Ana MC Air station after radar training. Next, orders took Troy to Iwakuni, Japan, where he met his wife and his final duty station was Beaufort, South Carolina, where he was discharged as a sergeant. During his service, Mr. Hyder enjoyed travel and adventure, leading to homes in Oregon, Georgia, Washington and now Arizona. Jennifer Hyder visited an enlistment office in Portland, Oregon, leading to her enlistment in the U.S. Marine Corps in 1972. After boot camp in Paris Island, South Carolina, she was stationed in Millington, Tennessee before her air traffic control class began in Glynco, Georgia. From there, she received orders to El Toro, California, and then traded orders for the duty station in Iwakuni, Japan. There she met a young Marine, and they were married at the U.S. Consulate in Fukuoka, Japan, in February 1975. The couple were stationed together in Beaufort South Carolina, for their last year of active duty. They were both sergeants. Jennifer and Troy made homes in Oregon, Georgia and Washington before moving to Sun City West in May 2019.

The Naylor family gathered for this photo at the beginning of World War II, when they were sending young John (in uniform) off to Europe to fight. He survived the Battle of the Bulge, but died in an airplane crash on his way home in 1945. Four brothers joined up – or rejoined – before the war was over, two going to the Orient, two to Europe. Three returned home to their mother and stayed in the service for a full 30 years: Frank (seated rear right), Rudy and Richard (front row). Frances Naylor (center back), the mother of six boys, nine children in all, spent the war years working in a factory, making gloves for the troops. She was nearly 60 when she began this war work. On her window she hung a flag with large blue stars for each of her boys who were away. The war was over and the flags were being taken down before she got the word that John's plane was lost. Submitted by Linda Darlene Naylor Smith, daughter of Richard Naylor in the front row. Richard's induction photo from 1938.

Jack Williamson served during the Korean conflict and Vietnam. He was in the Air Force and his job was to keep the planes flying. While he didn't have "boots on the ground" in either place, he was in strategic locations to provide support to those who were. Mr. Williamson spent 10 years in the Air Force. He was one of the lucky people chosen to take the Honor Flight to Washington, D.C. to view the military memorials.

The lucky troop who survived two war zones. Purple Heart veteran Dan Pellegrino enlisted in the U.S. Army in 1968 at age 17 and subsequently ordered to South Vietnam. Continuing with military career, he was in Beirut, Lebanon in 1983 after a 2,000-pound terrorist bomb (63 dead/120 wounded/two MIA) destroyed the U.S. embassy where he was stationed. He was subsequently awarded the Purple Heart for wounds received from the blast.

Mike and Helen Colacarro from Seattle on their wedding day. She was a Rosie the Riveter at Boeing while he headed to France and Germany. His unit was the Cactus Division, 103rd Infantry Div., 410th Regiment, Company D machine gun squad.

Dennis Stielow, Sun City West. Served in the U.S. Navy from 1961 to 1965. Was in boot camp at Great Lakes Naval Training Center, Illinois. Attended Aviation Electricians 'A' School at Jacksonville Naval Air Station in Florida. Served remainder of service at Corpus Christi Naval Air Station in Texas, in Training Squadron VT-30. He worked on the electrical systems of AD-6 Skyraider and T-28 Trojan aircraft.

Ryan East with AAA Patriot Garage Door. Served four years in the Navy with two sea duty deployments. Fresh out boot camp with his brother who was pretty fresh too. Lives in El Mirage. From Phoenix.
